Unit Nine: When Art Speaks2) Read the following passage, then answer the questions:

My brother and I were invited to spend a few days' holiday with our uncle who had returned from abroad. He had rented a cottage in the country, although he rarely spent much time there. We understood the reason for this after our arrival: the cottage had no good furniture in it, many of the windows were broken and the roof leaked, making the whole house damp. On our first evening, we sat around the fire after supper listening to the stories, which our uncle had to tell of his many adventures in distant countries. I was so tired after the long train journey that I would have preferred to go to bed; but I couldn't bear to miss any of my uncle's exciting tales. He was in the middle of describing a terrifying experience he had once had when his small sailing boat was carried out to sea in a storm and there was a loud crash from the bedroom above, the one where my brother and I were going to sleep. "It sounds as if the roof has fallen in," exclaimed my uncle, with a loud laugh. When we got to the top of the stairs and opened the bedroom door, we could see nothing at first because of the thick clouds of dust, which filled the room. When the dust began to clear, a strange sight met our eyes. A large part of the ceiling had collapsed, falling right onto the pillow of my bed. I was lucky that I had stayed up late to listen to my uncle's stories. We left for London the next morning and my uncle gave up his cottage in the country. This was not the kind of adventure he cared for either!
