2- Read the passage and then answer the questions:

Talia was meditating in her bedroom. She had sought asylum there since spurious gossip about her began circulating at the academy last week. Not that Talia had ever been considered a social butterfly. She preferred to live vicariously through the stories of her more brazen friends: late night partying, fraternizing with boys, childish pranks. Still, she had taken to being more by herself than usual since the allegations surfaced. She was up for consideration for the highly coveted Blauvelt Award, a scholarship recognizing “academic integrity and promise.” A student had given headmaster Mark an anonymous “tip” that Talia had cheated on several tests this year. The accusations were laughable. Talia had long been a stellar student at the academy. She lacked a natural intelligence – this was true. However, she compensated for this deficit through diligence and perseverance; she was very thorough in her studies and exhibited an almost relentless determination. Still, the accusations had given the recommendation committee pause. On Saturday Talia had been called to Mr. Mark’s grand office, where she was asked copious questions about her recent exams. The experience was quite traumatic. It was an elite school. Most of its students came from privileged backgrounds. This was not the case for Talia. Her family had little money. She attended the academy on a full scholarship. The Blauvelt Award would help her family pay for college. So, it was with the same diligence which she applied to her studies that Talia planned to reveal her accuser.
